

PART II.

To the student: If you have written a thesis, give its title in Section A; if not, give the title of the essay that satisfied the writing requirement in Section B and obtain the signature of the faculty member who evaluated it. The committee that administered the comprehensive examination should sign in Section C (or D) and the graduate director in Section E.

Please note: Students in programs that have an approved alternative to the comprehensive examination must still solicit signatures in Section C (or D) from the faculty members who have approved their papers or projects. They should not, however, complete Sections A or B.
