Professional Science Master’s Program

Criteria for the Appointment and Reappointment of Teaching Assistants

Teaching Assistant are selected by the program Director in close consultation with course instructors and with the approval of the graduate TA advisors. The Professional Science Master’s Program selects advanced graduate students based on their specialization and graduate training.

The criteria for the appointment of Teaching Assistants are as follows:

- Ability to communicate effectively, including demonstrate competence in spoken English.
- Competence in the subject area to be taught including academic and/or practical preparation
- Excellent organizational skills
- Availability and accessibility to perform assigned duties

The criteria for the reappointment of Teaching Assistants are as follows:

- Outstanding performance of duties assigned
- Development of appropriate teaching and organization skills
- Satisfactory performance of teaching assistant duties in previous appointment as judged by course supervisor and student evaluations.
- Availability and accessibility to perform assigned duties